

Professor Paul Musonge

PhD(Lond), DIC, FSAIChE, MCSE

Position: Acting Dean: Faculty of Engineering and the Built Environment

Tel: 031 373 2762

Fax: 031 373 2668

Email: prenitan@dut.ac.za

Professor Paul Musonge joined the Durban University of Technology in 2012, after an international academic career across a wide range of English and French institutions; Ahmadu Bello University (Nigeria), University of Ngaoundere (Cameroon), University of Karlsruhe (Germany), University of London (UK), Willis College of Technology (Canada), Cape Peninsula University of Technology (South Africa) and the University of Cape Town (South Africa). He is a recipient of a number of Prestigious Research Fellowships and Visiting Academic status including the British Council Research Fellowship, Royal Society of London Research Fellowship, Rolls Royce (UK) Senior Research Fellowship, DAAD - German Research Fellowship at the Institute for Hydromechanics, University of Karlsruhe and the African Visiting Academic Fellowship at UCT.

Current interest is in the training of Postgraduate students in order to build capacity for the next Generation of Academics and Industry Leaders in developing countries. Research interests are in the areas of water treatment, renewable energy and engineering education. Current Grant Holder of a South African NRF Collaborative Post Graduate Supervision Grant of R2.685 million awarded in 2017. Collaborates with the Universities of Wits, Mangosuthu University of Technology, University of Kwa-Zulu Natal, Vaal University of Technology, Cape Peninsula University of Technology, the CSIR, The Institute of Chemical Technology, Mumbai and Dharmsinh Desai University in India. Presently supervising over Postgraduate students. Published a combined total of over 50 Journal articles, book chapters, conference papers and technical reports.