

REFLECTING ON DEVELOPMENTS IN THE BROADCASTING INDUSTRY OVER THE LAST TWENTY YEARS AND CONSIDERING CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES

SUMMARY OF THE SEMINAR

This seminar will focus on the findings of the NAB Report in reflecting on the developments in broadcasting while considering the challenges, trends and opportunities facing the industry.

Ms Bulbulia has worked in the Communications sector since 1993, focusing on broadcasting and telecommunications policy and regulation. She serves on the National ICT Policy Review Panel of the Minister of Telecommunication and Postal Services.

Prior to joining the NAB in 2013, Nadia held executive positions in the telecoms and media industry and also worked in education and the cultural sector. She started her regulatory and policy work in 1994 as a researcher and council advisor at the former broadcasting regulator (IBA). She was later appointed by State President Mandela onto the IBA Council (1998) and then by President Mbeki onto the ICASA Council (2002). Nadia served as a non-executive board member at public sector entities including the SABC, the National Film and Video Foundation (NFVF) and Media Development and Diversity Agency (MDDA). She is a board member of Soul City and Research ICT Africa (RIA).
