ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF DEBT: ADVANCED FUNDS

The Research & Postgraduate Support office may advance funds to a researcher provided that:

- The researcher does not have any funds in their research account OR they are first time publishers who have not yet received research rewards.
- Funds are advanced against research articles that are eligible for DHET subsidy only.
- Advanced Funds will be recouped when research rewards from DHET become available.
- Advances are limited to R10 000.00

DEBT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

1. I, the undersigned, as an employee of the Durban University of Technology, do hereby acknowledge myself to be truly and lawfully indebted to the University for the sum of

Debt amount (including cents)	Debt amount in words arising from money advanced to me by the University. The debt amount will incur no interest.
R

2. I hereby authorise the university to automatically recoup the said debt amount when my research rewards from become available.

3. I understand that defaulting on the agreed repayment plan may lead to a debt recovery process.

Applicant Full Names		Department
Applicant Signature		Date	