

UNIVERSITY STATEMENT

Wednesday, 28 March 2018

To all DUT students and staff

In view of the violent protest by students today, Management has decided that on-campus lectures in Durban will be suspended from this afternoon, Wednesday, 28 March 2018.

There will be no on-campus lectures in Durban on Thursday, 29 March 2018

Kindly note that lectures in Durban are suspended for full-time students only. Classes for BTech and part-time students will continue as normal.

Lectures for full-time students in Durban will resume on Tuesday, 3 April 2018.

The academic programme will continue as normal in Pietermaritzburg.

The University wishes to apologize to all students and staff for any inconvenience caused as a result of this disruption to the academic programme in Durban.

Sincerely

DUT Management
