

Race for Education

Gender, White Tone, and Schooling in South Africa

Mark Hunter

INTERNATIONAL AFRICAN LIBRARY

Cambridge University Press

invite you to the launch of

Race for Education: Gender, White Tone, and Schooling in South Africa

by Mark Hunter

About the book:

Provides a unique view on race, class, and gender in a country that had the most institutionalized form of racism in the world. Provides one of the few book-length accounts of schooling marketisation – a move that has been sweeping the globe since the 1980s.

Date: Thursday, 8th August 2019

Time: 17h30 for 18h00

Venue: Ike's Bookshop & Collectables, 48a Florida Road, Durban

Discussants: Bill Freund (UKZN)

RSVP: Ike's Books at 031 303 9214 or ikesbooks@iafrica.com

Advance praise:

'Mark Hunter has produced the definitive text on the sociology of urban education in South Africa ... the book offers a novel account of how post-apartheid educational reforms have not led to the 'de-whitening' of the grammar of privilege ... [and] to understandings of schooling and youth identity in globalised cities.' Aslam Fataar – University of Stellenbosch and former President of the South African Education Research Association

The book will be on sale at the launch for R150.00