Dear Colleagues

Important new information sessions on Teams

Please join us for a new set of COVID-19 – related information sessions from 1 to 3 June.

This week, we cover the topic Return to Work: The ‘New Normal’ in interactive sessions on practical aspects of how to you as a student or staff member can safely re-enter campus life post-level 4 lockdown.

This is your opportunity to discuss the behaviour and workplace changes that are necessary in order to comply with COVID-19 safety guidelines and to keep you and those around you safe.

In these new sessions, you will receive advice and information on:

- Health and safety.
- Seating arrangements to comply with social distancing requirements.
- Working arrangements, including breaks.
- Workstation health and hygiene requirements.
- Reorganising how we work, travel, congregate, eat, move and connect.
- Personal protective kits.
- Commuting to campus.
- Digital meetings.
- What to do if you come into contact with someone who is infected with COVID-19.
- The staff support programme, and reporting ill health.
- The HealthCheck webpage, which is mandatory for staff and students to complete before coming to campus.

Your questions will be welcome.

Note: the 3 sessions will cover the same material, so you need attend only one session
