

DURBAN UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY
INYUVESI YASETHEKWINI YEZOBUCHWEPHESHE

WEBINAR

Gender Forum invites you to a Webinar commemorating National Women's Day.

The Pandemic of Gender Based Violence and Femicide in South Africa

DATE: 07 August 2020

TIME: 12:00 to 14:00

PLATFORM: MS Teams

Click here: to register

GUEST SPEAKERS:

Dr Pearl Kupe

Dr Pearl Kupe is an attorney, Social dialogue & Transformational leadership expert, Executive Coach and International consultant. She is currently the International President of Global Forum for Women Entrepreneurs. She is also a former UN Social Dialogue Specialist with the ILO, International Labour Organization who worked to establish peace and set up dispute resolution institutions in the SADC region Dr Kupe has the honour of being a recipient of many international & continental awards including the African Woman Living legacy award (Business & Enterprise), Pioneering SADC Women award & SA Influential Women 2019.

Mr Cyril Palany

Cyril Palany is the Deputy President of MOWA (Men Opposed to Women Abuse) a national movement of men committed to raising Fathers and promoting awareness of GBV. He is also an ordained Minister of Religion and the Founder of Turning Point for Men. The organization is working with men to change mind-sets regarding GBV and also works with boys at schools to mentor and teach them how to treat women. A former Cytologist and now an Author, Cyril Palany is an Activist in the field of GBV and campaigns against the abuse of women and children. He is a conference speaker and a motivational coach.

For more information please contact Dr Rosaline Govender: rosalineg@dut.ac.za or Kareeshma Gayaparsad: kareeshmag@dut.ac.za