WEBINAR

DUT
DURBAN UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY
INYUVESI YASETHEKWINI YEZOBUCHWEPHESHE

JOIN PROFESSOR FULUFHELO NETSWERA,
THE EXECUTIVE DEAN OF THE FACULTY OF MANAGEMENT SCIENCE AS HE HOSTS AN INFORMATIVE WEBINAR ADDRESSING

'DECOLONISING POST GRADUATE STUDIES IN AFRICA'.

25 MARCH 2021 | 3:00 PM | MS TEAMS

RSVP HERE | JOIN WEBINAR HERE

PROF FULUFHELO NETSWERA (HOST)
EXECUTIVE DEAN, FACULTY OF MANAGEMENT SCIENCES

Professor Fulufhelo Netswera holds a DPhil in Development Sociology and MPhil in Social Science Methods from Stellenbosch. He is a 2004 Emerging Philanthropy Fellow at City University of New York (CUNY), a former associate professor at Tshwane University of Technology (TUT) and Uganda Technology and Management University (UTAMU). Prof Netswera has published extensively in higher education management, governance, entrepreneurship and philanthropy. He is the current Executive Dean of the Faculty of Management Sciences at the Durban University of Technology.

PROF GIFT MHETA
GUEST SPEAKER

Gift Mheta - Associate Professor (PhD Linguistics, University of the Western Cape; Master of Philosophy in Applied Linguistics, University of Zimbabwe; Master of Arts African languages and Literature, University of Zimbabwe; Bachelor of Arts Honours in African languages and Literature, University of Zimbabwe; Diploma in Higher Education for Academic Developers, Rhodes University). Prof Mheta is the Writing Centre manager at the Durban University of Technology. He is based at the Steve Biko Writing Centre. His research is mainly focused on corpus development and maintenance, computational lexicography and language technology applications for the development of African languages. One of his recent publications is a textbook entitled, Language, Society and Communication: An Introduction (2nd Edition). He has also published several articles including a co-authored article entitled, Decolonisation of the curriculum: A case study of the Durban University of Technology in South Africa.

DR EMEM ANWANA
PANELIST

Dr Emem (Emmy) Anwana holds a PhD in Business Law from the Durban University of Technology, an LLM (Master of Laws) and an LLB (Bachelor of Laws). She also holds an Advance post graduate certificate in Supply Chain Management (UNISA). Dr Anwana lectured in the Applied Law department, she moved to the research unit of the faculty of management sciences in 2019 as the faculty's post graduate research co-ordinator. Her research interest are in the areas of corporate governance, corporate social responsibility, women's rights and gender equality, women entrepreneurship in Africa and most recently, higher education in Africa. She has presented at various international and national conferences and has published journal articles. Her article on "Decolonizing the law curricula at Universities of Technology in South Africa: The student's perspective on processes and content", has recently been accepted for publication in the South African Journal of Higher Education (SAJHE).

MR ZAMOKUHLE MBANDLWA
PANELIST

Zamokuhle Mbandlwa has a National Diploma, Bachelor of Technology and Master's degree in Public Administration from DUT. He also has a Bachelor of Social Sciences, UKZN, Leadership Certificate from NWU. He is a researcher in the Department of Public Administration at the Durban University of Technology. He has published 19 journal articles, he has presented papers in local and international academic conferences. Mr Mbandlwa has recently completed a PhD in Public Administration, published papers on ethical leadership, effective governance, quality of education, political dynamics and leadership challenges in Africa and the impact of the BBBEE.

DR MELANIE LOURENS
MODERATOR

Dr Melanie Lourens is currently the Deputy Dean of the Faculty of Management Sciences, she holds a PhD in Management Sciences: Human Resources Management (DUT), a MPhil in Leadership, Performance and Change (UJ), a MTech: Human Resource Management (DUT), a Post Graduate Diploma in Coaching and Mentoring (UCT), a Post Graduate Diploma in Entrepreneurial Studies (US), a Post Graduate Diploma in Statistical Analysis (UP), a Post Graduate Diploma in Project Management (US), a Post Graduate Diploma in Adult Education (UNISA), a BTech in Labour Relations Management (UNISA), a BTech in Human Resources Management (TN), a BTech in Training and Development (UNISA) and BTech in Quality (UNISA). Her research interest are in the areas of Knowledge Management, Talent Management, Academic Leadership and Teaching and Learning Paradigms in Higher Education.

ENVISION2030
transparency • honesty • integrity • respect • accountability fairness • professionalism • commitment • compassion • excellence
Improving lives and livelihoods

www.dut.ac.za