

Call for Applications:

Part-time Data Science Lecturers for the Short Course Unit (SCU)

The Short Course Unit (SCU) at Durban University of Technology (DUT) invites lecturers/facilitators to apply to teach various courses offered by the SCU on a part-time basis.

Duties:

Candidates are expected to:

- Facilitate Data Science courses designed for industry clients which includes:
 - Content curation
 - Practical demonstrations using RapidMiner or related software
 - Assisting student queries
- Demonstrate a high degree of competency in The Microsoft Office Suite (MS Outlook, MS Word, MS Excel, MS PowerPoint);
- Effectively utilize online communication platforms such as Microsoft Teams, Google Classrooms, Zoom, etc.

Minimum requirements:

- Master Degree (NQF Level 9) Data Science, Mathematics, Statistics, Computer Science, Information Technology, or related specialisations which includes Mathematics and Statistics in their coursework;
- 3 years related lecturing experience;
- Communicate competently in English;
- Own PC/Laptop or related device(s) with a good quality microphone and webcam;
- Strong and stable internet connection;
- Prior experience in RapidMiner will be advantageous; and
- Industry experience in Data Science will be advantageous.

How to Apply:

Please email your CV, certified copies of qualifications, and certified ID to RasmiS@dut.ac.za

Deadline: 14:00, Thursday, 20 April 2023.

For more information you can contact:

- Mbali Sibisi Project Coordinator ThembelihlesI@dut.ac.za 031 373 3016

DURBAN UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY
INYUVESI YASETHEKWINI YEZOBUCHWEPHESHE

- Rasmi Singh Project Coordinator RasmiS@dut.ac.za