

DOCTOR OF ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH (DREVHI)

The Doctor of Environmental Health is offered as a full research qualification. You may opt to enroll as a full time (3 years) or Part time (4 years) student. Students wishing to enroll for the Dr: Env Health must comply with Rule G24 of the DUT Student handbook. This programme comprises a novel, comprehensive, independently executed research project that culminates in a thesis.

If you are interested in applying for Doctor of Environmental Health for 2023, please send by email:

- 1) A letter of intent outlining your reasons for applying
- 2) An academic record/transcript (certified), note that you should have >60% in Research Methodology in your undergraduate qualification
- 3) Evidence of output from your Masters work
- 4) A 1 page concept document outlining a possible topic of interest
- 5) A CV (max 2 pages)

Due date: 30 November 2022 for the 2023 intake.

Contact: Prof P Reddy (PoovieR@dut.ac.za)

Please note that selection is a rigorous process and we are restricted with intake and selection is competitive, admittance is therefore not guaranteed.