The workshop aims to address the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations with "Gender Equality" and "Reduced Inequalities" at its core. To achieve gender equality by 2030, it is imperative to take immediate action to eliminate the many core causes of discrimination that continue to restrict women's rights in both the public and private realms. The program will encourage women's economic and social inclusion by providing them with resources to find gainful employment.

This workshop is hosted by the office of the Acting Deputy Vice-Chancellor: Research, Innovation and Engagement and the Chemistry Department.

Endorsed by the International Year of Basic Sciences for Sustainable Development (IYBSSD) and supported by the Department of Science and Innovation (DSI), Academy of Science of South Africa (ASSAf) and South African Chemical Institute (SACI)
