

Extended Curriculum Programmes: Challenges and Opportunities

Editor: Tennyson Mgutshini

Book DOI: <https://doi.org/10.52779/9781991201737>

Chapter DOIs

DOI	Ch No	Ch Title	Author/s https://doi.org/10.52779/9781991201737/00	00	Introduction	Tennyson Mgutshini https://doi.org/10.52779/9781991201737/01	01	Analysing the Impact of Extended Curriculum Programmes: Implications for Theory, Design and Practice	Chrissie Boughey https://doi.org/10.52779/9781991201737/02	02	The Extended Curriculum Programme and Mainstream Students Merger: Readiness Challenges of Mainstream Lecturers	Minenhle P.P. Matthews https://doi.org/10.52779/9781991201737/03	03	A Causal Attribution Assessment of Poor Academic Performance amongst Extended Curriculum Programme Students	Luyanda Loraine Bingwa
https://doi.org/10.52779/9781991201737/04	04	An Exploration of Different Selection Criteria of Admission into Higher Learning: Case of Placements in Learner Support Programmes	Omolola A. Arise https://doi.org/10.52779/9781991201737/05	05	Developing Numeracy in Extended Curriculum Programmes: Considerations and Possibilities	Shoba Rathilal & Wayne Hugo https://doi.org/10.52779/9781991201737/06	06	Challenges Relating to English Second Language Learning and Teaching in Foundation Programmes at a University of Technology	Sibongile Madi https://doi.org/10.52779/9781991201737/07	07	Explorative Insights into Lecturer Participation for Students with Increased Learning Support Needs	Thembelihle Sylvia Patience Ngxongo https://doi.org/10.52779/9781991201737/08	08	The Exploration of Critical Challenges Relating to the Recruitment and Retention of Male Students within Extended Curriculum Programmes in Female Gender-Dominated Qualifications	Laura Catherine Oppel
https://doi.org/10.52779/9781991201737/09	09	A Critical Evaluation of the Value and Contribution of a Liberal Education Curriculum on the Well-Being of Students in Extended Curriculum Programmes in Higher Education	Rosaline Govender & Shoba Rathilal