

FAITH IN GOING GREEN

With 30 days to go before COP17, vice-chancellor and principal of Durban University of Technology Prof Ahmed Bawa plants a tree at his campus as part of the 'We Have Faith – Act Now for Climate Change Justice' campaign. With him is Bryan Ashe, Saydoon Nisa Sayed and Sarah Khan. Bawa signed a petition that will be presented to leaders at COP17, asking for a legally binding climate treaty. The university will house civil society activity over the event.
