NQF 7

SAQA ID: 111451

Location: City Campus

Description of the Programme

A journalist gathers processes and presents news and current affairs material in the public interest for broad audience consumption. Media channels include radio, television, online, newspapers and magazines in beats such as Africa, arts, business, courts and crime, culture, health, human rights, fashion, labour, politics, sport, technology, travel and tourism. Editorial positions offer exciting career development potential. Freelance journalists can enjoy greater flexibility in their work.

Personal Qualities Required

The following skills and values are essential for good journalism practice

Excellent English language skills, both spoken and written. Journalists who are fluent in more than one language enjoy greatly improved working opportunities. Journalists require a strong work ethic and should be committed to the constitutional principles of freedom of expression. Highly literate with strong analytical skills. A street-wise sense about social behaviours. Good general knowledge. Good memory. Punctuality The successful journalist is also responsible, adaptable, self-disciplined, inquisitive and enthusiastically interested in people and events. Those who want to become editors should also have commercial instinct and leadership skills and will need to pursue the Bachelor of Technology: Journalism and Master of Journalism.

Media Environment

Places of work vary from home offices to hi-tech modern media institutions like the SABC, East Coast Radio, Al-Jazeera and BBC. Whether you freelance or head up a media empire, work-hours are irregular and long - they often include nights, weekends and public holidays. You will quickly be expected to source and gather your own stories. The work is quite stimulating, analytical but exhausting. Although teamwork is important, much of the work is solitary as the journalist chases the story and researches background information. Journalists are expected to travel to find the news, often at short notice, and must therefore be able to drive. Most journalists spend hours in interviews, writing and editing their stories. Starting salaries are not very attractive but senior journalists and editors earn salaries that could compare with other professions.

Journalism Activities & Events

Over and above the pursuit of academic excellence, the Journalism Programme is committed to ongoing relevant applied research as well as to the upliftment of communities. DUT Journalism sees itself playing a critical role in areas such as youth and women development, HIV/Aids awareness and 'Mainstreaming Africa'. To this end, DUT Journalism is involved in a string of activities that not only promotes a strong culture of teaching and learning but also contributes to the wellbeing of its numerous stakeholders. DUT Journalism commemorates significant days like World Press Day (May 3) and Media Freedom Day (October 19) by hosting seminars. At regular intervals, leading personalities in their respective fields of expertise donate their time and talent as guest speakers. In association with the Gandhi Development Trust (GDT), the Mahatma Gandhi Media Lecture is hosted each year. It was launched in 2008. DUT Journalism is actively involved in producing content for radio, television and online. The Advisory Board: Journalism
