What is a University of Technology?
A university of technology is characterized by being research informed rather than research driven where the focus is on strategic and applied research that can be translated into professional practice. Furthermore, research output is commercialized thus providing a source of income for the institution. Learning programmes, in which the emphasis on technological capability is as important as cognitive skills, are developed around graduate profiles as defined by industry and the professions.

6. REGISTRATION AND RE-REGISTRATION RULES

6.1 Registration for Diploma in Management Sciences

6.1.1 Students registering for the Diploma in Management Sciences are required to meet the minimum requirements detailed in departmental rule 4.1 above. NSC and NCV applications received via the Central Applications Office (CAO) will be scored and ranked from highest to lowest points. Based on these rankings and subject to availability, those students with the highest points will be offered a firm place; the students who have applied with their grade 11 results may be offered a conditional place subject to them meeting the requirements in 4.1 above. Preference will be given to students from designated groups.

6.1.2 This course is offered on a semester basis and registration takes place during January and July. See General Rules G3, G4, G5, G6 and G7.

6.1.3 The last date for acceptance of late enrolments or transfers from other departments will be four weeks from the commencement of lectures.

6.2 Registration for National Diploma: Management is on an annual basis with registration taking place in January of each year. A learner shall be admitted to maximum of SIX subjects in the first and second years of study.

6.3 Registration for the B.Tech: Management and the B.Tech: Business Administration. New students wishing to apply for these programmes are required to apply via the department by the end of September of the year preceding their intended registration. These programmes are offered on an annual basis with registration taking place in January of each year.

6.4 Changing from old programme to new programme. The ND: Management will be phased out and students who have not completed the outstanding subject/modules in terms of the phase out plan, will be required to either transfer to the new programme, or must complete the outstanding subjects/modules elsewhere and may apply for exemption, subject to the provisions of the general rules. Students transferring from the incomplete ND: Management to the Diploma in Management Sciences (Business Administration) may, on application, be granted credit for modules passed towards the new qualification.

6.5 Exemptions and Transfers: Students will be able to carry credits from the ND: Management to the new qualification within a four-year period. See General Rules G8 and G9.

6.4 Work done during the semester/year:

6.4.1 Year marks/semester marks shall be determined in accordance with the requirements as indicated in the student guides. For details of assessment refer to the student guide pertaining to each subject/module. Failure to meet these requirements will disqualify a student from writing the final examination in the modules concerned.
6.4.2 Notwithstanding Rule G12 a year/semester mark obtained for any module is valid only for the main examination in the year/semester in which a student is registered plus the supplementary examination in that module if granted to the student in terms of Rule G13.

6.4.3 If a student is absent from a test / formal assessment a medical certificate must be provided within seven working days from the date that the assessment was conducted. The department reserves the right to verify any medical certificate.

6.4.4 All students that were absent for a formal assessment and have submitted a medical certificate to the Department, will be permitted to write a make-up test in the common general education modules. A make-up test replaces a single test that has been missed in the course of the year/semester, and may not be used to replace an assignment mark. If the student is absent for the make-up test, a zero will be allocated. Details whether make-up tests are offered in other, non-common modules will be outlined in the student guide for each module.

6.4.5 Students must verify course marks before the final examinations are written. A 40% year/semester mark is needed to gain entry into the examination of subjects/modules that have a terminal examination. Continuous assessment modules require a year/semester mark of 50%.

6.5 Experiential Learning.

4.3 Changing from old programme to new programme
Students who have failed more than two subjects in the first year of study in ND: Public Relations and Communication Management will have to migrate to the new qualification.
The ND PRM will be phased out and students who have not completed the outstanding subject in terms of the phase out plan will be required to either transfer to the new qualification, or must complete the outstanding subjects elsewhere and may apply for exemption, subject to the provision of the general rules.

Students will be able to carry credits from the ND in Public Relations Management to the new qualification within a four-year period. See General Rules G8 and G9.
4.5 Work done during the year: see programme and assessment plan and structure accordingly

1. Year marks/course marks shall be determined in accordance with the requirements as indicated in the learner/study guides. For details of assessment refer to the learner/study guide pertaining to each module. Failure to meet these requirements will disqualify a student from writing the final examination in the module concerned.

2. Notwithstanding Rule G12 a year/semester mark obtained for any subject is valid only for the main examination in the year/semester in which a student is registered plus the supplementary examination in that subject if granted to the student in terms of Rule G13.

3. If a student is absent from a test / formal assessment a medical certificate must be provided within seven working days from the date that the assessment was conducted. The department reserves the right to verify any medical certificate.

4. All students that were absent for a formal assessment and have submitted a medical certificate to the Department, will be permitted to write a make-up test. A make-up test replaces a single test that has been missed in the course of the year, and may not be used to replace an assignment mark. If the student is absent for the make-up test, a zero mark will be allocated.

5. Students must verify course marks before the final examinations (where applicable) are written. A 40% course mark/DP is needed to gain entry into the exam.

5. Student conduct
See General Handbook Rules SR1 to SR12

6. Experiential Learning
In order to qualify for the diploma, all full-time students who are bona fide final year students (i.e. students who will complete their diploma programme at the end of the third year) will be required to undertake a period of experiential learning in an approved industrial/commercial organisation.
Details are available in the Departmental Experiential Learning Policy document.
The student is required to complete an official logbook detailing duties performed and be subject to an end-of-training evaluation by the immediate supervisor.
Although the Institution undertakes to assist the student/candidate in obtaining suitable experiential learning placement, the onus is on the student/candidate to find an “employer”.
The employer must be accredited by the Durban University of Technology for the purposes of experiential learning. An experiential learning agreement creates a separate contract between the “employer” and the student/candidate.

PROGRAMMES OFFERED BY THE DEPARTMENT
Programmes are offered in this Department which, upon successful completion, lead to the award of the following qualifications:

Qualification
Diploma in Management Sciences (Human Resources Management)
National Diploma: Human Resources Management (Phasing out in 2016)
Bachelor of Technology in Human Resources Management
Master of Philosophy in Human Resources Management
Doctor of Philosophy in Human Resources Management

The following programme are being phased out and there will be no new first year in take in 2016:

ND: Human Resources Management.

The B.Tech Human Resource Management will be phasing out and the Advanced Diploma and Post Graduate Diploma is to be introduced in 2019.

4. PROGRAMME INFORMATION
The department offers the Diploma: Human Resource Management, the Diploma: Management Sciences (Human Resources Management) and the BTech: Human Resources Management on a full time and part time basis.

The M Phil and PhD are offered on a part-time basis.

The full-time instructional programmes are offered to students between 08:00 and 16:50 daily. The programme content, final examinations and diploma issued are the same for both groups. The full-time students, being generally younger, lacking extended practical experience, and having more time available, are given a more detailed lecture programme and more personal attention. The more mature students who attend the evening school frequently have the advantage of practical experience in the areas in which they are studying. This partly overcomes the pressure of work and the limited lecture and study times available to them. These part-time students must perform much of the work themselves, and as a result are encouraged to acquire their diploma over a longer time-period than the full time students.

The Diploma in Management Sciences (Human Resources Management) has been developed to produce competent graduates who are grounded in the fundamental theory and principles that underlie the practice and growth in this field. This 360 credit diploma is at a NQF level 6 and is aligned with the qualification description as per the HEQF. In keeping with the institution’s aims of creating, maintaining and developing its relationships with commerce, government and industry, this diploma seeks to further strengthen the link between the institution and the world of work. The learning environment is flexible in both its mode of delivery and its methodologies, with a combination of formal face-to-face classes, technology based and independent learning contributing to the learners’ experience.
