

THIGH'S THE LIMIT

Durban University of Technology students bagged eight of the top 10 spots at last night's Vodacom Durban July young designer award semi-finals held at Greyville Gold Circle. The 10 finalists will be pitted against each other next week when they showcase their Durban July-inspired theme designs. The winner will walk away with a KZN Fashion Council mentorship package valued at more than R30 000 and a trip to London Fashion Week and will be announced on the July 7 race day. Here Lee Williams of Ice Models showcases a Haroun Hansrot creation.
