

RADIO IS HIS CALLING

Gagasi breakfast show with Alex is making waves

By MBALI DLUNGWANA

He loves communicating with people. "Radio gives me that platform to talk with people all over the province," said popular Gagasi FM breakfast show presenter Alex Mthiyane.

Daily Sun caught up with the versatile presenter of Alex and the Morning Crew's at the Gagasi offices.

"Our show targets urban-black listeners. I have to say our show is filled with infotainment because it's both informative and fun at the same time," he told SunBuzz.

The experienced radio man easily juggles entertainment and hard news. He co-hosts the show with Kini Shandu and Noluthando Banda (Mango).

Alex grew up at Mpangeni in the Nqutshini area, where he lived with his parents and six brothers. The radio bug bit him in 1995 while he was a student at Durban University of Technology.

"I still find it hard to believe I'm now doing things that back then were done by top radio presenters like Tim Modise," he said excitedly.

Alex Mthiyane can't imagine himself leaving Gagasi FM, the love of his life.