

GET SOCIAL

Wanda Rheeder in a
David Thale creation

JULY THRILLS AND FRILLS

This year's Vodacom Durban July was another hit on the social calendar offering a capacity crowd a feast of colour, fashion, hobnobbing with celebs and socialites and, of course, racing. The three-year-old colt, Pomodoro, roared into the Vodacom Durban July record books at Greyville when he pipped outsider Smanjemanje in the final stride, giving Pierre 'Striker' Strydom his third victory in the big race. It was a first for trainer Sean Tarry and owner/breeder Chris van Niekerk.

On the fashion field, third year DUT student Tammy Sturrock stole the limelight when she topped the prestigious Vodacom Durban July Young Designer Award, and Bloemfontein designer Tsholofelo Mooloi scooped the hotly contested Fashion Challenge title.

Caitlin
Hammond wearing
JSE
Couture

Tshqu  Harcharan in a Prasheen Bhagwandin design and Kaveera Singh wearing JSE Couture

Chantel Cronje in a design by Hester Cronje

Jessamy Vosper and Triveshan Naidoo in Zeeny B Designs

Lotus FM's Pauline Sangham

Zeeny B and Dominique de Beer

Bianca Lee and Richard Scrooby

Top Billing's Jeannie D