

SKISA girls confident ahead of Kanazawa Cup

MAKHULU NEWS SPORT REPORTER

Four SKISA girls, Mishka Chunilal, Trina Oree, Riasha Singh, and Sharyanka Naidoo will be flying the SKISA flag high when they compete in the Kanazawa Cup 2012 to be held at the Durban University of Technology's Fred

Crookes Sports Centre on Saturday, April 28. According to the public relations officer of SKISA, Mr Sharan Haricharan, the young karatekas, who are also South African champions, have been training hard with Proteas coach, sensei Brando Pillay, resulting in them being super fit to do battle amongst the best at South Africa's premier karate event.

"We sacrificed our Easter holidays and took full advantage of the holiday special coaching session offered by the coach," said the karatekas. The vice president of Karate South Africa, kyoshi Sonny Pillay said a record entry of 800 top fighters from around the country will participate in the tournament. He said several teams from countries such as Madagascar, India, Bangladesh, Pakistan, Mozambique, Botswana, DR Congo, Algeria, Cameroon and Mauritius amongst others have confirmed their attendance.
